MILITIA RELIEF WORK CONTINUED

Committee Ignores Fourth Festivities and Discusses Work at Meeting.

While practically everything else in Washington was at a standstill yesterday, the movement for the relief of the families of the men of the District National Guard, went on.
 The Woman's Relief Association of the District National Guard, composed of the wives of the commissioned and non-commissioned officers of the Guard, ignored the various celebrations throughout the city and met at the home of Mrs. William E. Harvey, head of the organization, 1744 Lamont street northwest.

Mrs. Glendie B. Young, wife of the colonel of the Third Infantry, reported that she had collected $100 from friends.
 Mrs. Maj. McCathran turned in $20 and Mrs. Harvey $15. The central organization, which was formed at the Willard on Monday afternoon, will launch a citywide campaign this morning for funds.
Committee of Ten.
 John Dolph, chairman of the central body, and last night will appoint the working committee of ten, provided for at Monday's meeting, this morning.
 This committee will go over the 1,500 blanks which have been filled in by the Guardmen, informing the committee of how many they have left without support. The committee also will map out a plan under which the relief work may be carried on systematically.

Until further notice, contributions and appeals for aid should be addressed to John Dolph, Chamber of Commerce.
 The rooms of the association until it can secure permanent quarters.
 Mr. Dolph said last night it will be impossible to tell just how many families have been left without means of livelihood until the blanks have been classified. He renewed his assurance to the families of Guardmen that appeals to the committee will be held strictly confidential.

The membership of the Citizens' Welfare Association is not limited. Any organization desiring to assist in the relief work may join the central body by naming three delegates to serve on it.
 The executive committee of the central body is composed of one of the delegates from every organization represented.
 More than thirty organizations belong already.

TROOPERS PARADE CITY TO LURE OUT RECRUITS

National Guard Sends Full War Strength Company Through Streets, with Band.

Washington was shown what a real war strength company of 150 infantrymen looks like when a combination of Companies C, G and H of the Third Infantry, D. C. N. G., marched through the city yesterday on a recruiting campaign.

With the Third Infantry Band leading, and the requisite number of stretcher-bearers for a company, and a brown canvassed-covered escort wagon drawn by four mules bringing up the rear, the march across the city via Pennsylvania avenue to Peace Monument and back to the recruiting station at 1225 Pennsylvania avenue, created much excitement and brought forth cheers all along the route.

The start was made from Georgetown shortly after 2 o'clock.
 The men were in light marching order, with haversacks, and many of the people thought that the troops were marching to Union Station to train for the border until they saw the big sign on the escort wagon which read:

"Men, your country needs you. Enlist at once in the D. C. N. G." Capt. W. R. McCathran, of Company C, was in command of the war strength company, and Lieut. H. W. Klotz and William J. Bacon, were his aides. Sergeant J. H. Chrisman was drum major of the band. The medical detachment consisted of three stretcher bearers in command of Sergeant George L. Halter.

When the men reached the recruiting station, rifles were stacked, and the men told to scatter to all parts of the city to urge participation in patriotic celebrations to make good their professed love of the country by enlisting when their country needs them. Fifteen recruits were brought in by the campaign waged all afternoon by the men.

Company K, of the Third Infantry, went to the horse show at Brightwood reservoir and gave some spectacular drills in the interest of more enlistments. The machine gun company also sent a detail to show how its weapons were handled.
 Officers in command of Company K were Capt. Frank Sharpless, First Lieut. F.
 C. Martin, and Second Lieut. C. R. Reid.

FOULKE WITHDRAWS FROM PROGRESSIVES

Indianapolis, July 4.—William Dudley Foulke, of Richmond, Progressive and personal friend of Col. Roosevelt, today sent a letter to Edwin M. Lee, Progressive State chairman, in which he announced his formal withdrawal from the Progressive party.

Foulke has been a leading light in the Progressive party since its formation four years ago, and he had tentatively accepted an invitation to be a candidate for United States senator at that ticket.
 Mr. Foulke has announced that he will be an independent voter, but his friends say that he favors Charles E. Hughes for President.

TO HONOR CARRIZAL VICTIMS.

Memorial Services for slain Colored Troopers to Be Held Here.
 Memorial services in honor of the colored troopers of the Tenth Cavalry who were killed at Carrizal, Mexico, several days ago will be held at Cosmopolitan Baptist Church at 8 o'clock on Sunday night, July 30. This was announced following a mass meeting held at the church last night under auspices of the Henderson Civil Rights League of America, which is arranging the memorial service.
 Representative Albert Johnson, of Washington, will be the principal speaker at the memorial services. The association at last night's meeting renewed its efforts to have the bodies of the sacrificed troopers brought here for burial at Arlington. Senator Thomas Sterling, of South Dakota, spoke last night on "Preparedness and the Colored Soldier." Representative Addison T. Smith, of Idaho, also spoke.

FIFTEEN MORE JOIN MILITIA

Stream of Fourth Merrymakers "Kid" Recruiting Officers at Stations in City.

Exhibition drills, by a picked war strength company of 150 men, a parade through the city, a concert by the District regimental band, and the combined efforts of more than 100 men detailed to canvass the city, resulted yesterday in the enlistment of fifteen more men for the National Guard. The parades and band concert probably will be continued daily until the Third Infantry is recruited to sufficient strength. About 200 more men are needed.

Officers in charge of the several recruiting stations were in bad humor when they closed at 10 o'clock last night. They said they had been "worried sick" throughout the entire day by the "wrecked" and "drunk" men who were coming in here and try to enlist today—and every one of them was incapacitated," said Lieut. Col.
 Sayer, in charge of the central recruiting station at 1225 Pennsylvania avenue.
 "Some of them looked as if they'd be cracked soon," when they were sober, too. But it made it mighty disagreeable.
 The law doesn't allow us to accept a man even the slightest degree under the influence of liquor. The only thing I could do was to wait until the men came back tomorrow when they were feeling better."

To Head Colored Troops.
 Capt. McGonegal, who has been second in command at the Pennsylvania avenue station ever since it opened, has been ordered to report at Camp Ordway and take command of those troops.

First Sergeant Battalion D. H. Sayer was ordered to take command of the First entrained last night and are now on their way to the border, but the recruiting of colored men still continues.
 It is probable to enlist enough men to form the Separate Battalion into a regiment. Less than 100 men are needed.

Capt. McGonegal has been on the retired list. Beginning today, however, he probably will be returned to active service. He will undergo a physical examination at the War Department.

A new plan to draw attention to the recruiting station will be put into effect by Maj. Springsteen, the "drummer boy of Mianus Station," tomorrow evening. Maj. Springsteen will get out the Sons of Veterans' Band, which he organized and trained, and march it back and forth, playing "martial airs, between the Pennsylvania avenue recruiting station and the station at N. Ninth and D. street.

The following men were accepted for enlistment yesterday:
 Richard Jackson, Alexandria, Va.; Harry E. Wayne, 1222 B street, southeast; William W. Cyrulnik, 214 C street northwest; Harry Lee, 725 Seventh street southeast; James C. Smith, Brentwood, Md.; John F. Parks, 335 Massachusetts avenue northwest; Carlwell S. Calhoun, 614 G street southwest; William E.
 Bishop, Baltimore, Md.; Lawrence Bolden, Alexandria, Va.; Rufus E. Matell, Fairfax, Va.; George S. Williams, 1504 Wisconsin avenue northwest; Sherman K.
 Bachtel, 219 F street northwest; Frederick W. Speaker, 112 Sixth street northwest; George A. Welland, 45 V street northwest; George M. Gardner, 1516 H street northwest.

ORDWAY MILITAMEN AT RESERVOIR EVENTS

landed on his face. Aleck suffered only slight injuries, but decided that "Mary" was a little too old-fashioned.

A little later in the afternoon Aleck entered the chase for the greased pig, but his experience with "Mary" handicapped him.

When first released, the pig threatened to cause a panic. Every time he would get near the ropes his pursuers, with visions of pork chops in mind, would rout him into the center of the ring.

Greased Pig Caught.
 Finally, Harrison Russell, of the District Water Department, dived at the pig, tackled him about the middle and the chase was over. A few minutes later he was seen disappearing over the mill with the pig behind him.

The carnival began with a parade of work-horse teams. The parade started from Fifteenth street and Pennsylvania avenue and proceeded out Sixteenth street to the reservoir where the teams were judged by George Mullin and Howard Norton.

A feature of the horse show events was the jumping of Capt. G. S. Gibbs' horse, "Frederick," who was awarded the silver cup in the free-for-all jumping event.

The carnival closed with two thrilling half-mile jockey races, during which the crowds on the slopes of the reservoir stood up and cheered their favorites.

In the first half-mile race, horses finished in the following order: "Ben Galore," owned by Policeman John Boland, purse, $5; "Flycatcher," owned by Ralph Coffin, purse, $10; "Willie Green," owned by J. Jones, purse, $5.

"Flycatcher" Is First.
 In the second race, two heats, the results in order, were: "Flycatcher," Ralph Coffin, $5; "Dancing Master," R. J. Mc-Lellan, $10; "Sparkling Water," C. W.
 Otwell, $5.

George N. Ash won the blue ribbon in the harness pony class. Anna V.
 Houser was awarded the red ribbon, and George Walcott the yellow.

In the saddle-horse event, J. C. Love, riding Strongheart, won the B. F. Keith silver cup. Eleanor Jackson, riding White Sox, was second in this event.

In the event for harness horses, Harry Palmer won first, X. Stomach, chairman, and Harry Heiser, third.
 Ben Galore, owned by Mounted Policeman John Boland, won the Grafton long jump event.

Private J. E. Cox won the mounted wrestling match staged by the troopers of the Second Cavalry. He remained in the ring alone after all his comrades had been thrown from their horses.

In the work-horse parade, ribbons were awarded the four best horses in each branch of the District service. The ribbons for business houses were awarded as follows:
 Single hitch—George M. Oyster, blue; George M. Oyster, Tolman Laundry, yellow, and George M. Oyster, white.
 Double hitch, Block & Brothers, blue; George M. Oyster, red; H. M. Wagner Company, yellow, and Block & Brothers, white.

Three-horse hitch, H. M. Wagner & Co., blue; Security Storage Company, red, and Security Storage Company, yellow.
 The committee in charge of the carnival consisted of Melvin C. Hazen, chairman, and Capt. William Mitchell, Thomas Bones, John O. Green, John W. Beale, John L. Martin, John O. Evans, J. B.
 Shinn, H. L. Bruninger and Maj. C. W.
 Fenton. Commissioners Newman and Kutz and Senator Brady assisted in judging the events.

Willis A. Calkins, of Abington, a large chicken, hired an expert to come from Boston to pick chickens. The man arrived about 10:30 in the morning, stopped to eat dinner, and at 5 o'clock had 100 picked.

FIGHTING SPIRIT OF U. S. IS LAUDED BY HUGHES

 men, not foolish men; straight men, honest men, dependable men, real men—that is what we mean by Americanism. There is a vast amount of good judgment in this country, much more than the headlines of our country seem to indicate.
 There is a vast amount of thoughtfulness in this country. We are not a rash people; we are not filled with a spirit of militarism. We are not anxious to get into trouble, but if anybody thinks that the spirit of service and sacrifice is lost and that we have not got the old sentiment of self-respect, he does not understand the United States.
 "I am not going to make a speech, but I do want to say a word to you along these lines: We want patriotism, but I don't think that we are going to lose it very soon, although I do devoutly hope that out of the perils and difficulties of this time may come a new birth of the sentiment of unity.
 "I do hope that in the midst of all these troublesome conditions we will have a better realization of our national strength, and of the import of our democratic institutions. We want something more than thrills in our patriotism; we want thought, we want intelligence.
Tells of His National Dream.
 "My dreams of America represented in public office by its best men, men working entirely for the good of the republic, and according to the laws and ordinances established by the people for the government of their conduct, and not for their bittens; America working her institutions bittens; America working for institutions as they were intended to be worked with men whose object shall be to secure the end for which their offices were designed."
